

SUPERINTENDENT/PRESIDENT POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

College of the Desert is the largest institution of higher education in the Coachella Valley.

At College of the Desert (COD), we are dedicated to providing the tools, programs and instruction critical for student success. Our leadership continually innovates new ways to serve the needs of our region's diverse and growing population and ensure accessible higher education for all. Central to our mission are initiatives that help students overcome economic and social barriers so they can focus on their education.

STUDENT SUCCESS INITIATIVES

We also pride ourselves on other student success initiatives that are making a difference on our five campuses. They include resource centers for Dreamers, LGBTQ+ and Black students, foster youth and military veterans, on-campus food pantries, the EDGE/pLEDGE program, and free transportation programs, all of which help bridge achievement gaps among some of the most at-risk populations.

- The College's EDGE program, acclaimed both locally and nationally, has garnered several awards including the 2016 California Community College Chancellor's Office Student Success Award, 2018 Bellwether Award, and 2019 Innovations of the Year Award. Starting with personalized guidance on expectations and financial aid, EDGE offers a two-week summer refresher in math and English and pairs with the pLEDGE promise for two years of free tuition. Key outcomes include higher retention rates and improved college-level math and English scores among participants.
- In 2023, the District launched the Roadrunner Express which provides students free transportation between campuses. This service is especially helpful in bridging the gap for students who use Haul Pass to get to class. Haul Pass offers free unlimited transportation to COD students through the local public transportation provider, SunLine Transit Agency.
- $5 Textbook Rentals was also launched in 2023. This program allows students to rent textbooks that are included in the program for $5 for the entire school year; therefore, leveling a barrier to education for those who cannot afford class resources.
- As a partner campus of College Corps, College of the Desert's students are invited to apply to a program that pays students up to $10,000 ($7,000 living stipend and $3,000 education grant) to do community service and gain job experience. College of the Desert is one out of less than 50 other College Corps partners.

OUR STUDENTS

College of the Desert is a regionally and nationally recognized Hispanic Serving Institution (HSI) with a student population that reflects the service area demographics. In 2023, Hispanic Outlook on Education Magazine and The Campaign for College Opportunity recognized COD as a champion of equity for underrepresented student populations.

COD ranked in the top 100 two-year colleges in the nation for enrollment of Latinx students in 2021-22. Also, the College was among the top 12 community colleges with at least 65% of Latinx students earning an associate degree for transfer.

In 2018, Coachella Valley Hispanic/Latinx populations comprised 52 percent of the service area population. In fall 2018, 81 percent of the students enrolled at the College were from communities of color, with 75 percent self-identifying as Hispanic/Latino. Only 32 percent of Coachella Valley residents aged 25 and older have a high school diploma or GED, 16 percent already have some college or postsecondary education but lack a terminal degree, and only 4 percent have an associate degree. A lot of our students are non-traditional students who come to us from all walks of life. Many of them are the first in their families to attend college and some are 4.0 high school graduates. We have single parents struggling to balance work, parenting, and education, and others who come from outside the state or country seeking better futures for themselves and their families.

We are also seeing an uptick in enrollment from high school students in our Free Early College program as student populations at local high schools are projected to increase and remain elevated for several years. Through Free Early College and other outreach efforts, College of the Desert has the opportunity to attract more traditional students and help them transfer to four-year institutions or careers with significantly reduced financial burden.

DEDICATION TO EQUITY

College of the Desert is committed to diversity – in our student body, our faculty and our curriculum. We are an open-door institution that embraces the right of all people to have access to quality higher education in a safe environment that supports equity and inclusion.

Over the last year, the College joined the California Community College Equity Leadership Alliance, which facilitates and provides resources to address individual and systemic racism. The College also partnered with the USC Race and Equity Center to administer a survey of students on race and campus climate and is revising first responder course materials to address social justice, equity, anti-racism and community policing.

STRONG COMMUNITY SUPPORT AND ENGAGEMENT

Since the College opened in 1962, it has been serving the local community by creating jobs and income, providing area residents with easy access to higher education opportunities, and preparing students for highly skilled, technical professions. And now, College of the Desert is experiencing one of the most exciting periods in its more than 60-year history. Local voters have approved two bond measures that total nearly $1 billion that are being used to fund new buildings and update existing infrastructure and facilities, as well as the creation of additional class offerings in the eastern and western Coachella Valley.

(Based on: John Lewis, Institute for Social Justice.)

STUDENT SUCCESS

We commit to student learning, goal completion, personal fulfillment, and lifelong learning.

COLLEGE OF THE DESERT FOUNDATION

The Foundation Board of Directors is the fundraising arm of the College of the Desert. The College president plays a vital role in the advancement of the Foundation's efforts and serves as an ex-officio member of the Board of Directors. For over 40 years, the COD Foundation has played a transformative role, raising more than $130 million to support student services and instruction. Presently, it manages endowments and other assets of more than $63 million which were made possible through the generosity of corporations, foundations, alumni, parents and philanthropists.

Endowment funds raised by the Foundation provide financial support for scholarships, textbooks, classroom technology upgrades, faculty positions, immersive student experiences, workforce development internships and many other programs. The Foundation helps to provide comprehensive access to education by removing logistical and financial barriers. This in turn transforms the lives of students and their families, cultivates a professional workforce and strengthens the Valley's socio-economic infrastructure.

In 2020, at the height of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Foundation launched its ambitious "Stepping Up for College of the Desert" campaign to support students pursuing their educational dreams. The campaign has continued and, due to overwhelming support from the community and the committed Foundation Board of Directors, the campaign is just shy of reaching its goal of $2.3 million. Embedded in the campaign is support for the Student Emergency Fund, which became a vital lifeline for students impacted by COVID-19. Since April 2020, more than $269,000 has been awarded to more than 330 students.

The Foundation continues to seek strong community partners to join us in making a life changing impact on students and their families while advancing the economic growth of the Coachella Valley.

SUPERINTENDENT/PRESIDENT OPPORTUNITIES

The new Superintendent/President will lead the College of the Desert through new opportunities over the next several years.

INCREASING ENROLLMENT

A multiyear trend of declining resident and nonresident enrollment challenges maintaining fiscal stability. Innovative ways to keep students enrolled through mutually beneficial internships and partnerships with industries are needed to address this reality. The new Superintendent/President has the opportunity to work with colleagues galvanized to increase enrollment.

EFFECTIVELY INTERACT WITH THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The next Superintendent/President must be attuned to the dynamics of the Board of Trustees and be an adept communicator who listens, presents detailed fact-based proposals, and is comfortable with the natural give-and-take of political discussion.

STRENGTHENING PARTICIPATORY GOVERNANCE AND IMPROVING LABOR RELATIONS

College of the Desert has a long history of participatory governance and collaborative labor relations, which it aspires to build upon. The new Superintendent/President should bring thoughtful attention to stabilizing the priorities and building trust. The Superintendent/President must also be a skilled and confident practitioner of participatory governance and a genuine partner with full-time and part-time faculty, classified professionals, administrators, and student representatives in improving processes and ensuring good and timely outcomes.

IDENTIFYING A SUSTAINABLE FINANCIAL MODEL AND OPPORTUNITY TO IDENTIFY AND SECURE NEW SOURCES OF REVENUE

College of the Desert's new Superintendent/President must bring knowledge, insight, and expertise to the complex task of identifying a sustainable financial model for the college and associated resource allocation methods aligned with student success. The Superintendent/President has the opportunity to build on College of the Desert's history, advance innovation, and strengthen its reputation to renew and expand relevant, high-quality programs and services while identifying and securing new one-time and ongoing revenue sources to support those initiatives.

IMPROVE TECHNOLOGY INFRASTRUCTURE

A systemwide plan for improved infrastructure, technology use, information management, and application is needed to enable improvements in marketing, recruitment, and service to students, faculty, and staff, as well as build more efficient vendor relationships and improve business efficiency. The next Superintendent/President has the opportunity to initiate an adaptive systemic technology infrastructure to enable COD to embrace emerging technologies with greater flexibility.

REIMAGINE WAYS TO ACHIEVE RETENTION AND COMPLETION GOALS

College of the Desert is being challenged to respond to shifting demographics in its service area, growing income inequality, a demand for new and different approaches to preparing students for challenging and rewarding careers, and the growing realization that housing and food insecurity, and well-being issues, are significant factors confronting many COD students. The Superintendent/President has the opportunity to lead the way in modeling adaptive teaching and learning approaches, recognizing that a singular system will not work for everyone.
